Getting Ready for the 2011 CBA Forum

By Tasha Coleman, 2010-2011 CBA Chair

Wow, has it already been six months since the annual meeting in Denver, Colorado? Before you know it, it'll be September and we'll all be meeting again in Charlotte, North Carolina, discussing the pros and cons of administration of the physical therapy profession.

Over the last six months the Council of Board Administrators (CBA) has hosted one WebEx regarding "Continuing Competence" which allowed the FSBPT staff to go into greater detail and answer specific questions regarding the process, and benefit to using the aPTitude program. In the next couple of weeks the CBA will be hosting our second WebEx regarding "Fixed Date Testing."

In addition to the WebEx trainings, we have compiled the committee which will address vacant positions for the CBA (i.e. CBA Member on the Board of Directors, Chair and Vice Chair). We will have our first meeting via WebEx in the second week of May and will report back to the entire CBA at the annual meeting.

Because we listen, the September CBA meeting will allow more time for jurisdiction highlights. In the next couple of months, you will be receiving a form to complete where each state can list their achievements and most pressing concerns. We will use this information to focus our discussion on the topics that affect physical therapy administrators directly and the profession as a whole.

Until we meet again...

Tasha Coleman, Indiana, CBA Chair
